ATTENDANCE MANAGEMENT POLICY

Last updated: 30.8.19

UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

Article 3: The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all decisions and actions that affect children.

Article 28: Every child has the right to an education...Discipline in schools must respect children's dignity and their rights.

RATIONALE

A robust system for the accurate recording and monitoring of pupil attendance is crucial for the following reasons.

1. Child protection and safeguarding

When pupils are missing from class this may impact on their safety and wellbeing. Unexplained, regular or extended absence from school may be suggestive of a wellbeing concern. In order to ensure the safety and wellbeing of pupils it is vital that attendance issues are identified in a timely manner.

2. Attainment and achievement

Poor attendance has a significant negative impact on attainment and achievement, and increases the chances of poorer outcomes later in life. Accurately recording and monitoring pupil attendance allows for early and appropriate interventions.

3. Social inclusion

Poor attendance is linked to poorer connections and relationships with peers and disengagement from the community.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

All members of the school community have a role in monitoring and managing pupil attendance.

- If a pupil arrives with a notes saying they have been with another member of staff please update the register to present.

NB. All staff who are speaking to a pupil during class time should send them to class with a note detailing who they have been with and when they were sent to class. Please also inform the office if a pupil is with you but this is not their timetabled class.

- Refer any patterns of absence or other attendance concerns to Guidance.

Register Teacher

- Once the register has been taken and the announcements read the register teacher will check the absence sheet for the class for the previous day. This will be supplied as a paper copy in your pigeon-hole every morning.

- Where a note explaining sickness is provided the teacher should update this on the absence sheet and arrange for it to be returned to the office at the end of registration for update.
