Skills Strips- Sketching

Bronze	Silver	Gold
Sketch a one point perspective box. Top Tip: Remember to label your vanishing point. 	Sketch a one point perspective box with a hole in it. 	Sketch your initials using one point perspective. Extension- Try your full name!
Skills Strips- Rendering

Bronze	Silver	Gold
Sketch a rectangle and show a solid and gradient fill. 	Using a coloured pencil, practice your rendering. Top Tip: Ensure you have a sharp pencil. Lock your wrist. Apply an even layer.	Practice your material rendering. Render using wood effect. Use: Yellow Orange Brown

Skills Strips- CAD

Bronze	Silver	Gold
Create a lego brick using EXTRUDE and CIRCLE. 	Create a remote control using EXTRUDE and RECTANGULAR ARRAY. 	Create a bottle using REVOLVE.

Skills Strips- DTP Planning

Bronze	Silver	Gold
Create a plan for a poster advertising a new, modern, lifestyle cafe. You should have a minimum of two thumbnails. 	Annotate your plan using the following design elements and principles- Alignment Depth Unity Comment on your use of colour.	Create your lifestyle cafe poster using Serif PagePlus. You must only use a maximum of three colours.

Skills Strips- DTP Analysis

Bronze	Silver	Gold
Comment on the alignment used in this magazine cover.	Annotate this publication using Reverse and Depth.	Describe the effect of unity on this publication.

Skills Strips- Graphs and Charts

Bronze	Silver	Gold
State the name of the four types of graphs and charts.	Explain why a pie chart would be the most suitable option for the following data. 23% Production 17% Manufacture 20% Ideas and Models 16% Client Needs 14% Follow Up	Create your own graph or chart displaying one of the following: Favourite Foods Favourite Animals Favourite TV show Favourite Colour

Skills Strips- Materials

Bronze	Silver	Gold
State the two families of plastics. State the two types of metals. State the three families of wood.	Describe what is meant by “plastic memory” 	Suggest a suitable process for the following product.